

APHIS Regulated Areas

Counties currently regulated by USDA for Sudden Oak Death (Phytophthora ramorum) under 7CFR301.92

--Updated September 27, 2004--

The following California counties are currently regulated by USDA for Sudden Oak Death (Phytophthora ramorum) under 7CFR301.92

- | | |
|------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1) Alameda | 7) Napa |
| 2) Contra Costa | 8) San Mateo |
| 3) Humboldt | 9) Santa Clara |
| 4) Marin | 10) Santa Cruz |
| 5) Mendocino | 11) Solano |
| 6) Monterrey | 12) Sonoma |

The following California counties are currently regulated by the State of California and will shortly be regulated by USDA for Sudden Oak Death (Phytophthora ramorum) under 7CFR301.92.

- | | |
|----------------|-------------------------|
| 1) Lake | 2) San Francisco |
|----------------|-------------------------|

Part of the following Oregon county is currently regulated by USDA for Sudden Oak Death (Phytophthora ramorum) under 7CFR301.92

- 1) Curry County. That portion of Curry County as follows: In T. 40 S., R. 13 W., secs. 5, 8, 16, 17, 20, 21, 28, 29, 32, and 33; southeast quarter of sec. 19; west half of sec. 9; west half of sec. 4; and northeast quarter of sec. 30.